

GDLV59

Semaine des langues du 18 au 23 mars
2024

"L'important, c'est de communiquer"

Vidéo Route of the Paris 2024 Olympic Marathon

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=A6ZsPGLUxkQ>

Watch the video and try to answer the questions:

What is the video about?

What can you see?

Read the questions, and try to find the answers in the text below:

What happened on October 5th and 6th 1789?

How many women marched through Paris?

What is the distance covered by the marathon?

What will be the distance for the mass event running?

"To put yourself in the shoes of your Olympic heroes", what does this sentence mean?

.....

.....

.....

.....

GAMES WIDE OPEN TO THE ENERGY

With challenges open to the public

To become an Olympic athlete for the day is a dream come true thanks to Paris 2024. With the Mass Participation Marathon, spectators will become participants in the Games, testing their limits on the same day and under the same conditions as the Olympic athletes.

A remarkable, challenging and inspiring course

For the Olympic marathon, one of the most iconic events of the Olympic Games, Paris 2024 has unveiled a new route.

When planning the route for this legendary event, Paris 2024 drew inspiration from the 'Women's March' of 5-6 October 1789 when 6-7000 Parisian women marched through Paris, Sèvres and St Cloud before reaching Versailles and forcing the King back to the Tuileries Palace.

Starting at the Hôtel de Ville and finishing on the Esplanade des Invalides, the course will take in some of the most beautiful sights and monuments of Paris and its surroundings. It will deliver 42.195km of drama with the Louvre Pyramid, Grand Palais, Château de Versailles and the Eiffel Tower as its backdrop.

A race open to the general public for the first time in Olympic history

With mass event running, the general public can put themselves in the shoes of their Olympic heroes and run the same marathon route.

To open up this experience to everyone, Paris 2024 will offer, in addition to the traditional 42.195km distance (20 years old and above), a 10km race accessible to as many people as possible (16 years old and up).

POUR TRACER LE PARCOURS
DU MARATHON OLYMPIQUE,
PARIS 2024 A FAIT LE CHOIX
FORT DE S'INSPIRER DE
LA « MARCHÉ DES FEMMES »
DES 5 ET 6 OCTOBRE 1789, L'UN
DES ÉVÈNEMENTS FONDATEURS
DE LA FRANCE D'AUJOURD'HUI.

Le marathon olympique puise son énergie et son inspiration dans la marche des femmes, un des grands combats collectifs qui a façonné l'Histoire et les valeurs de la France contemporaine.

Les 5 et 6 octobre 1789, des marchandes de la Halle, commerçantes et ouvrières des faubourgs populaires se rassemblent devant l'Hôtel de Ville à Paris pour réclamer du pain et des armes. Entre 6000 et 7000 Parisiennes, rejointes par les hommes, traversent Paris, pour se rendre à Versailles et ramener le roi aux Tuileries. Ce jour-là, Louis XVI accepte enfin de ratifier la déclaration universelle des droits de l'Homme et du Citoyen.