

Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star

Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star est une chanson enfantine populaire anglaise.

Les paroles sont celles d'un poème anglais de Jane Taylor, The Star, publié pour la première fois en 1806.

La mélodie est empruntée à la chanson française: »Ah! Vous dirais-je maman », datant de 1761. Cette mélodie a été popularisée par douze variations de Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart.

Twinkle, twinkle, little star

*Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder what you are!
Up above the world so high,
Like a diamond in the sky.
Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder what you are!*

*When the blazing sun is gone,
When he nothing shines upon,
Then you show your little light,
Twinkle, twinkle, all the night.
Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder what you are!*

*Then the traveller in the dark,
Thanks you for your tiny spark,
He could not see which way to go,
If you did not twinkle so?
Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder what you are!*

*In the dark blue sky you keep,
And often through my curtains peep,
For you never shut your eye,
Till the sun is in the sky.
Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder what you are!*

*As your bright and tiny spark,
Lights the traveller in the dark, —
Though I know not what you are,
Twinkle, twinkle, little star.
Twinkle, twinkle,*
